

About the Author

I am 61 years old, married, and a resident of Mississauga (Ontario, Canada). My interest in writing dates back to when I was a child and an avid reader of newspapers, then magazines and books.

I graduated, with Honours, from the Sales and Marketing Certificate program of Sheridan College.

"The Transporting Device" is my first book.

I have written a follow-up to this story, "Brigid II: The Transporting Device Is Reinvented", which is my second book. I have also written the second sequel called, "Brigid II: The Contraband Caper".

I am currently seeking to have my latest story, "Water Fate", produced into a motion picture. It was awarded as quarterfinalist in the Sunvale Screenplay Contest. My script, called "Jackpot!", has been produced into a 22-minute film. It has won an award for Best Short Film in the Indie Film Festival.

I have had several Letters to the Editor published in local newspapers over the years. Several years ago, I won a creative writing contest. I was 1 of 15 winners out of many entrants.

My career goal is to become an independent author. I wrote a monthly column for the Peel Weekly News, called: "Focus on Film Forum", from 2019 to 2022. It focused in on current events, personalities and companies that take place or operate in Mississauga, Peel Region, and the GTA. . In 2020, I was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Mississauga Writers Group. I am the Director of Marketing and Promotions.
